

Engaging Stakeholders in Climate Adaptation and Decision-making: Suggested Reading

Please note that this listing is merely a bibliography of relevant literature. The URL or DOI numbers provided may allow you access to the full article text, depending on your institutional library's agreements with individual publishers. Links to article abstracts are also provided for most citations; clicking on ABSTRACT will take you to the website of the Center for Climate Adaptation Science and Solutions (CCASS) and will not provide you access to the full article text.
